

THE MULTILINGUAL IBERIAN ARCHIVE 1500-1700

An International Workshop

30 October 2024, 2:15-6pm

Rector's Drawing Room, Exeter College, Oxford

Convenor

Giuseppe Marcocci (Oxford)

Participants

Michael Bax (Oxford)

Tania Bride (Oxford)

Erica Feild-Marchello (Oxford)

Jorge Flores (Lisbon)

John-Paul Ghobrial (Oxford)

Euan Huey (Oxford)

Joseph Jackson-Eade (Bologna)

Please register by emailing iberian@history.ox.ac.uk by noon of Friday 25 October.

The Multilingual Iberian Archive 1500-1700

30 October 2024

Workshop Programme

2:15pm Welcome

2:30pm Introduction

Giuseppe Marcocci (Exeter College, Oxford) Languages and Archives: New Trends in Early Modern Iberian and Global History

2:45pm Panel 1 | Letters and Interpreters

Chair | Tania Bride (St Edmund Hall, Oxford)

Joseph Jackson-Eade (University of Bologna) Locating the Línguas: A Malabar Correspondence's Multilingual Background in the Late 1520s

Michael Bax (Magdalen College, Oxford) Nahuatl Interpreters of the Real Audiencia in Sixteenth Century Mexico

Euan Huey (Wolfson College, Oxford) A Sultan's Letters from Early Seventeenth Century Manila

Discussant | Erica Feild-Marchello (Exeter College, Oxford)

4:30pm Coffee Break

5pm Panel 2 | From the Archive to the Book

Chair | John-Paul Ghobrial (Balliol College, Oxford)

Jorge Flores (CIUHCT-University of Lisbon) From Indo-Persian to Indo-Portuguese in the Seventeenth Century: Letters and News Flows

Final Discussion

6pm Drinks

This workshop is intended to mark the publication, by the University of Pennsylvania Press, of Jorge Flores's Empire of Contingency: How Portugal Entered the Indo-Persian World.